

AIHS Workshop Registration Disclaimer and Waiver

I (the registrant) understand that the materials presented during the American Interventional Headache Society (AIHS) educational workshops has been made available for educational purposes only. These materials are not intended to represent the only, nor necessarily the best, method or procedure appropriate for the medical situations discussed, but rather are intended to present an approach, view, statement or opinion of the faculty that may be of interest to others.

The materials presented during AIHS workshops contain information regarding suggested medical treatments and/or can initiate any medical treatment discussions. This information presents medical opinions and any medical care or treatment should not be solely made on the basis of this information. The accountability and judgement for proper medical treatment is the responsibility of the treating physician together with his/her patient.

As a condition of my participation in AIHS workshops, I hereby (i) waive any claim I may have against AIHS and its officers, directors, employees, sponsor, agents, or against the presenters or speakers, for reliance on any information presented in the workshops; and (ii) release AIHS, its officers, directors, employees, sponsors and agents, as well as the presenters and speakers, from and against any and all liability for damage or injury that may arise from my participation or attendance at these workshops. I further understand and agree that no reproduction of any kind, including photographs, audiotapes and videotapes, may be made of these workshops. All property rights in the materials presented, including common law copyright, are expressly reserved to the presenter or speaker.

AIHS is not responsible for expenses incurred by an individual who is not confirmed and for whom space is not available. Costs incurred by the registrant, such as airline or hotel fees or penalties, are the responsibility of the registrant.

By registering to any AIHS workshop, I consent to the conditions of participation set forth above.
